

What'll take you across the American west with stops at sites like Zion National Park? Dayton photographer Richard Malogorski's work, on display from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. through Dec. 31 at the Kettering Government Center.

Malogorski took his black-and-white photos in out of the way locations across the United States, like a repair shop in Appam, N.D., a gas station in Shamrock, Texas, or rustic house of worship (Fountain Run Church, 1994, right). Call the Rosewood Arts Centre at 296-0294.

